

200  1.5 million sq ft
student each academic and administrative space

500,000 sq ft
academic and administrative space

5,200 165,000 sq ft
student beds hotel and conference room

250
student family units 300,000 sq ft academic space 350,000 sq ft retail space

The Century Apartments were originally constructed to provide low-income housing for not only working students but also community residents. However, USC bought the property in 1976, reducing the 40 community residents who lived in the building with USC students.

 = 100 jobs

